

DAY'S DOINGS IN WORLD OF SOCIETY

Secretary Hay and Prof. Benjamin Ide Wheeler, of California, the President's Guests at Luncheon.

The White House.

Secretary Hay and Prof. Benjamin Ide Wheeler, of the University of California, were the President's guests at luncheon yesterday.

In the afternoon the President went driving with Gen. S. B. M. Young.

Diplomatic.

The Argentine minister and Senora Merou entertained at luncheon yesterday.

The Turkish minister is registered at the Metropolitan Club.

Sidky Bey, secretary of the Turkish legation, and Madame Bey are in New York, where they may remain all winter.

The Persian minister, who went abroad in the early summer, has not yet returned.

Ambassador de Aspiroz gave a dinner last night at the Mexican embassy in honor of Alfred de Chavero, president of the lower house of the Mexican congress. The guests included the delegates to the international congress of Americanists, the Hon. John W. Foster, ex-Secretary of State; the Hon. David Jayne Hill, Assistant Secretary of State; Herbert D. Putnam, Librarian of Congress; Charles D. Wolcott, chief of the Geodetic Survey, and a number of other distinguished officials.

Herr Assessor Elrod Schack, attaché for agriculture and forestry, has arrived at his new post at the German embassy.

Capt. Erwin Schaefer has been appointed naval attaché at the German embassy to succeed Captain Rebeur-Paschwitz.

Weddings.

The marriage of Miss Ethel Herbert Bogan to John Elliott Shaw took place at noon yesterday at the Church of the Ascension. The Bishop of Washington, the Right Rev. Henry Y. Satterlee, officiated.

The ushers who preceded the bride to the church were Daniel Whitteley and Harry Barber, of Minneapolis, Minn.; Robert Decatur Stuart, of St. Paul, Minn.; Robert Grant, of Syracuse, N. Y.; and F. M. Bogan and Samuel Wood-Bogan, brothers of the bride.

Dr. Samuel W. Bogan gave his daughter in marriage. The bridesmaids in attendance were Miss Floy Smith, of Evanston, Ill.; Miss Helene Miller, of Cumberland, Md.; Miss Edith Woodward, also of Maryland; Miss May Joyce, Miss Blanche Polk, and Miss Daisy Sypher, of this city. They were attired in yellow satin crepe, with large hats of white panne velvet, trimmed with white plumes.

The bride's gown was of cream-tinted lace, with the bodice and skirt draped with silver spangled gauze. She wore a tulle veil crowned with blossoms, and carried a shower bouquet. Owing to the serious illness of Miss Louise Hoge, of Evanston, Ill., who came here to be one of the bridesmaids and whose condition is now so serious that her mother was sent for and has now arrived, the reception that was planned to succeed the ceremony was omitted and only the bride party returned to the Bogan residence to see the groom and his bride off on their wedding trip.

Miss Mary Josephine Sheridan and Lawrence Joseph Simonon, were married at noon yesterday, at St. Patrick's Church. The ceremony was performed by the rector, the Rev. J. D. Stafford, D. D. The attendants were Miss Frances Leary and Vincent Simonon.

Miss Sadena E. Herbert, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Herbert, and Thomas Francis McKee, were married last night, at 8 o'clock, in Freund's parlors, on Tenth Street northwest. The ceremony was followed by a large reception.

Miss Caroline Wilhelmina Meyer, of Aurora, Ill., niece of Senator Dietrich, of Nebraska, and Henry G. Smith, of Washington, were married at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon, at St. Andrew's Episcopal Church, by the Rev. John Woods Elliott, assistant rector of the parish.

Miss Gertrude Dietrich, daughter of Senator Dietrich, who is a student at Bryn Mawr College, was Miss Meyer's only attendant. Louis R. Bostwick, of Omaha, was best man.

The bride wore a gray traveling gown and carried a bouquet of lilies of the valley.

Only a few intimate friends of the bride and groom witnessed the ceremony.

WILEY-HANEY WEDDING.

A quiet wedding was solemnized yesterday afternoon at the residence of the Rev. Frank M. Gibson, 1335 R Street northwest, when Ethel Fielding Haney, of Baltimore, became the bride of J. Sidney Wiley. The bride was attended by Stella Blanchard as maid of honor, and James P. Caulfield acted as best man. The ceremony was witnessed by immediate relatives of the contracting parties. Mr. and Mrs. Wiley left the city last night for Old Point Comfort, where they will spend the honeymoon. After November 10 they will be at home at 1203 U Street northwest.

ADMIRAL RODGERS RETURNS.

Rear Admiral Frederick Rodgers left Yokohama for San Francisco yesterday on the flagship New York. He will come by way of Honolulu. Before starting Admiral Rodgers turned over the command of the Asiatic station to Rear Admiral Robley D. Evans, who was directed to relieve him. Admiral Evans is at Yokohama in the flagship Kentucky.

CONVENTION OF SUNDAY SCHOOL WORKERS ENDS

Election of Officers Followed by Song Service.

The convention of Sunday school workers which has been in progress for the past three days at Mount Vernon Church, Ninth and K Streets northwest, closed last night with the election of officers for the ensuing year, as follows: President, W. W. Millan, re-elected; first vice president, the Hon. W. S. Shallenberger; second vice president, E. S. Booram; secretary, R. A. Balderson; treasurer and field worker, J. H. Lichtner.

Additions to the executive committee are: L. D. Alden, J. S. Barker, the Rev. S. Billheimer, C. W. Bohannon, E. W. J. Bowman, Eugene C. Brown, H. L. Buell, John E. Dawson, Weston Flint, R. E. Hawey, J. E. Nicholl, Arthur Robb, H. M. Shook, George C. Samson, and John W. Stewart.

The exercises last night consisted of a song service, Percy S. Foster, director, with Mrs. Eugene Byrnes organist, and Dr. F. A. Swartwout, pianist. Jasper Dean McFall sang "Hear Ye, O Israel."

Addresses were made by the Rev. A. F. Schaffner, on "Modern Child Study: Its Mistakes and Excellences," and P. H. Bristow, on "Cuba and the Protestant Sunday School."

SYPHAX SCHOOL TO BE DEDICATED TOMORROW

Program Prepared by Board of Education.

At the meeting of the Board of Education last night announcement was made that Syphax School, colored, would be dedicated tomorrow afternoon. The new building is on Half Street, between M and N Streets southwest, and was named in honor of William Syphax, formerly a member of the board of trustees of the public schools. Remarks will be made by Commissioner H. B. P. Macfarland, W. H. A. Wormley, Prof. W. S. Montgomery, assistant superintendent, and James S. Bundy.

The board granted the use of the hall in the Central High School to the Teachers' Annuity and Aid Association for a course of professional lectures for teachers.

The following appointments of teachers were announced: Maud Liscomb, temporary teacher of cooking; E. C. Westcott, principal of Greenleaf school, vice Miss Whitteley, resigned; Albert Moore, substitute kindergarten teacher; Lulu Brown, Adele Moody, Abbie Coultry, and Mignon Nixon, normal graduates.

Teachers promoted were: D. I. Renfro, D. E. Gardner, B. E. Bohrer, Mary Muckenbaupt, K. V. Horan, E. T. Maurer, E. G. Brewer, N. V. Baker, M. E. Wright, D. A. Wylie, A. B. Howard, and A. L. Corneal.

An examination of candidates for positions as teachers of music will be held on November 1 at the Franklin School building.

WORKMEN PREPARE TO INCREASE MEMBERSHIP

Celebration Last Evening With That End in View.

The three local lodges of the Ancient Order of United Workmen—Columbia, National, and Senate—together with a delegation of twelve members from Delta Lodge of Alexandria, last evening celebrated the thirty-fourth anniversary of the founding of the order. The ceremonies, which consisted of speeches and music, were held in the Workmen's hall at Fifth and G Streets northwest.

The celebration last evening was preliminary to a movement for the enlargement of the membership of the order in the Grand Lodge of Maryland, which includes Maryland, Virginia, and the District of Columbia.

For some reason the Ancient Order of United Workmen has never been very large or powerful in this community, although much younger orders of similar character have risen to enormous memberships. In other sections of the country the order has large lodges, and the desire is to raise the standard in this community. Abram Fry, of Washington, is chairman of the lodge increase committee of the Maryland Grand Lodge, and will be at the head of the work to be undertaken.

The program last evening consisted of speeches on subjects of special interest to the order by Abram Fry and Dr. J. Ward Wilson, the latter of Baltimore, representing the Maryland Grand Lodge; J. W. Kinsley, of Washington, past supreme master workman, representing the supreme lodge; C. H. Turner, Columbia Lodge; Ferdinand Breslau, National Lodge.

The musical portion of the program was arranged by Senate Lodge. It consisted of songs and musical comedy sketches by local talent, those participating being George J. Comstock, Harold Nachman, Ernest Citterer, William Murphy, C. F. Bellinger, Thomas R. Jones, William A. Boyd, Richard Smith, and the Hagen brothers.

LOCAL MENTION.

Hot Tamales and Chili Con Carne at the Ranch, 507 F St. N.W. Phone E. 846-M.

Microbes, malaria, and filthy water all done away with by the Safe Filters. Estimate cheerfully furnished. The W. B. Scalf & Sons Co., National Hotel. Telephone East 704.

COMING TO THE THEATERS.

The National—Louis Mann.

"Hoch, the Consul," with Louis Mann in the chief part, will be the offering at the New National Theater next week. The piece is said to be one of the best ever presented by Mr. Mann. It is the story of an erratic individual who contrives to have himself appointed United States consul to a foreign principality. In his excessive but humorous zeal he carries matters to a point that threatens serious international complications, and his conduct finally leads to his recall. Incidentally, the play deals with the "New Diplomacy" of the United States Government, and satirizes the doctrine of "benevolent assimilation."

Columbia—"Florodora."

"Florodora" will open at the Columbia Theater next Monday evening for a week's engagement, with matinees Thursday and Saturday. "Florodora" has been conceded by many authorities to be the most tuneful in that class of plays designated as musical comedy.

In the list of principals to be seen here are a number of players who have been identified with "Florodora" during its American run, among them W. P. Carleton, Helen Redmond, R. E. Graham, Philip H. Ryley, and Nace Bonville. The Lady Holyrood will be Grace Dudley, an English actress who was in the London production. The role of Angela Giffan will be played by Edna Hunter. Donald Brine will be the Captain Donegal and Lily Collins, Valleda.

Lafayette—"Fiddle-Dee-Dee."

"Fiddle-Dee-Dee" will be at the Lafayette next week.

"Fiddle-Dee-Dee" has a good record for long runs, both in New York, where it was played for some months at Webster & Fields' Music Hall, and at Buffalo, where it had a run of twenty consecutive weeks at Shea's Theater. This summer the show was entirely reconstituted, and the management promises that everything will be new, bright, and up to date. Some new songs have been added, and the cast has been strengthened.

Chase's—Polite Vaudeville.

The Russell Brothers will head Chase's bill next week. They will be assisted by Annie C. Russell and John Russell, Jr. Eva Williams and Jac. Tucker will offer their new sketch, "Driftwood," and Edith Helena, the soprano, will sing several selections. "The Mischiefous Boy" will be played by the Fitzgibbon-McCoy trio. Les Frassetis are foreign instrumentalists. Blockson and Burns are black-face comedians, and Lew Bloom is a monologist. The Gebest Sisters have a musical and dancing specialty.

On election night returns from all over the country will be read to the Chase audience.

Academy—Royal Lilliputians.

Tiny midgets, monster giants, aided by ordinary sized mortals, comprise the acting members of the Royal Lilliputians, who will be seen the coming week at the Academy in a musical extravaganza entitled "In Posterland," which is described as a new departure in theatricals. The press agent says it requires two cars to transport the scenery, properties, electrical appliances, and mechanical effects used in the performance.

Kernan's—New York Stars.

"The New York Stars" will be the attraction at the Lyceum Theater next week.

In the olio will be Brown, Harris, and Brown, McIntyre and Rice, the three Jacksons, Mlle. Ani, and Martella and Lancaster. As an extra attraction, Leo Pardello, a wrestler, will forfeit $25 to anyone he fails to throw in fifteen minutes. Election returns will be read from the stage Tuesday evening.

Empire—Bowery Masqueraders.

The Empire Theater will have for its attraction next week the Bowery Masqueraders. The bill which this company offers is one which the press agent claims is above the average and includes six vaudeville numbers and two burlesques. Among the vaudeville acts are Mabel Leslie, Sisters Arberg, Cushing and Merrill, the famous Nicholas Croix Troupe, Fields and Hurley, and "Young Sharkey," the middleweight champion pugilist of New England, who, with his partner, Lew Diamond, will be seen in an athletic sketch. The company also includes a good sized chorus.

Innes' Band Concert.

Innes and his band have been criticized for playing music too classical for the lay mind. This season Innes is giving more of the program to the so-called "popular" music, but this does not necessarily imply that the band will be heard playing some of the trash that is so often called "popular music." The soloists are Frances Boyden, soprano; Bohumir Kryl, cornetist, and Filippo Sevasta, harpist. Innes and his band will appear at the Columbia Theater Sunday afternoon and evening.

VERMONT HONORS

ADMIRAL CLARK

Portrait of Naval Hero Unveiled at Montpelier—Eulogistic Speeches Made.

MONTPELIER, Vt., Oct. 29.—Ceremonies were held at the State Capitol today of the unveiling and acceptance of the portrait of Admiral Clark provided by the State. This constitutes a fitting culmination of the honor his native State has sought to do him as one of the two conspicuous naval heroes of the Spanish war, both children of Vermont and of Montpelier.

In joint assembly this life-size portrait, painted by Frederick G. Winton, of Boston, was presented by ex-Governor Stickney and accepted by Governor McCullough. Admiral and Mrs. Clark were present, the former in the full uniform of an admiral in the navy.

The presentation speeches were most eulogistic. The admiral replied briefly.

BRITISH PACIFIC CABLE READY.

SYDNEY, N. S. W., Oct. 29.—The Federal government has been informed that the British Pacific cable will be completed tomorrow and officially opened Friday. Arrangements have been made for sending congratulatory messages from Lord Tennyson, the acting governor general, to Colonial Secretary Chamberlain.

BODY BORNE TO GRAVE

BY FOUR GRANDSONS

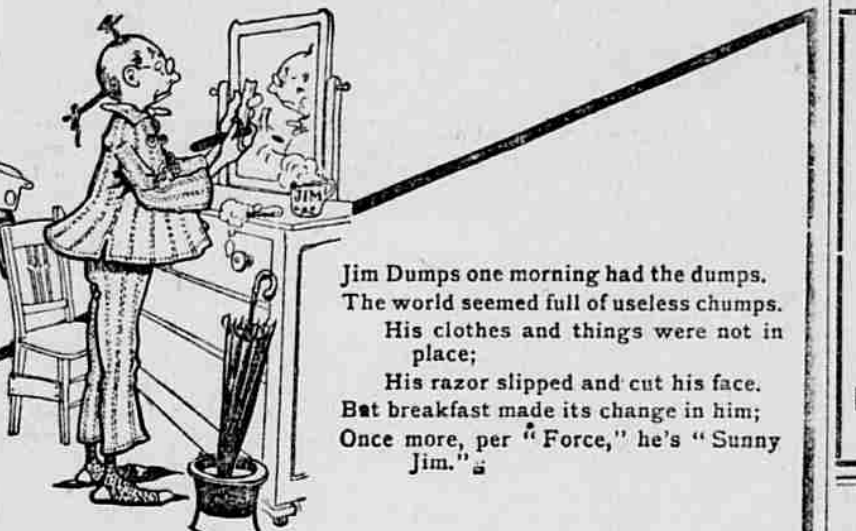

Funeral of James G. Naylor, Who Erected Several of Washington's Large Buildings.

The funeral of James G. Naylor, one of the old residents of this city, took place yesterday afternoon from his late residence, 456 M Street northwest. The services were conducted by the Rev. Dr. Prentiss, pastor of Mount Vernon Place Methodist Church, of which Mr. Naylor had been a member for many years. Members of Gibson Post, G. A. R., were honorary pallbearers, and the following grandsons the active bearers: William Naylor Emerson, Ralph Waldo Emerson, R. Owen Edmonston, and Charles Naylor. Burial was made in Glenwood Cemetery.

Mr. Naylor was eighty-two years old. He served an apprenticeship as a carpenter under Charles F. Wood, a builder many years ago in Washington. Among the large buildings since erected by Mr. Naylor are those of the institution for the deaf and dumb at Kendall Green, the Colonization Building, the Franklin School Building, the First Presbyterian Church, and the Calvary Baptist Church.

SHEPHERD MEMORIAL FUND.

Two subscriptions were received yesterday to the Shepherd Memorial fund. G. W. Cook subscribed $5 and Julian O'Donnell $15, making the total amount pledged $3,858.

"Force" puts a smiling face on trouble.

The Ready-to-Serve Cereal

Sweet, crisp flakes of wheat and malt.

Gained Ten Pounds.

"Every summer I have had to take tonics but now I use 'Force.' I take four tablespoonsful every morning and I am now enjoying excellent health—it has built me up—have gained about ten pounds."

(Mrs.) KATE W. DOW.

E. F. DROOP & SONS,
925 F. AVE.
(Our Catalogues are free for the asking.)

Lansburgh & Bro

Sale of Silks.

20-inch-wide Black Mère Velour; beautifully watered; excellent black; very bright; reliable in finish; wear assured; color 55¢

Some special Nos. in Black Velours. We promise perfect satisfaction in all special grades:

21-inch-wide well watered; value, 74¢

22-inch-wide, well watered; value, 80¢

23-inch-wide, well watered; rich polka dot; value, $1.25

24-inch-wide, black, well watered; value, $1.50

We modestly claim to carry the most complete stock of Black Peau de Soie in the city. Note the special prices:

20-inch-wide Black Peau de Soie; very bright; value, 63¢

21-inch-wide. See this special 73¢

22-inch-wide; John N. Stearn's $1.00

23-inch-wide; very heavy and handsome; value, $1.00

24-inch-wide, on pride for coats; value, $1.25

Lansburgh & Bro.

420 to 426 Seventh St.

PETER GROGAN.

Credit for All Washington.

We Make, Lay, and Line Carpets Free of Cost and on CREDIT

We do not even charge for the two or three yards that are wasted in matching figures. We sell none but reliable grades, and warrant the durability of every yard. We can furnish and drape your house for less money than any one else in Washington—and we will split the payments up so small that you'll never miss the money. No notes—no interest.

PETER GROGAN,

817-819-821-823
SEVENTH STREET.
Between H and I Sts.

DR. PATTON'S Union Dental Parlors.

LOWEST PRICES
PAINLESS Extraction, when plates are ordered FREE
910 F. N. W. Second Floor.

Droop's Music Special No. 15.

10c PER COPY.

Publishers' Price:

Gottschalk's "Last Hope"..... 10c

Chopin's "Flower Song"..... 10c

"April Stroll"..... 10c

"Valse Blanche"..... 10c

"Gypsy Song"..... 10c

"Flower Song"..... 10c

"Poet and Peasant Overture"..... 10c

"Tannhauser March"..... 10c

Grove's "Velocity Studies"..... 10c

"Il Trovatore" Selections..... 10c

Mendelssohn's "Rondo Capriccioso"..... 10c

"Palm"..... 10c

"One Sweetly Solenn Thought"..... 10c

"Shepherd Boy"..... 10c

"My Old Kentucky Home"..... 10c

OUR PRICE, 10c EACH.

(Our Catalogues are free for the asking.)

WHY HAVE

Plates made in the old way when you can get the latest method for even less money? We put the Vero Double Section in all our plates, which keeps them from falling while eating or talking. Extracting free with Vero Air—the only office in Washington where it is given. Call today.

VERO DENTISTS.

Main Office, 13th and Pa. Ave. Also 1111 F St. Hours, 9 a. m. to 8 p. m. Sunday, 9 a. m. to 12 m.

KNABE PIANOS!

Bargains in new and used instruments of various makes. Sole agents for the

Aeolian and Pianola

Pianos Rented.

Wm. Knabe & Co.,
1209 Penn. Ave.

AMUSEMENTS.

COLUMBIA WASHINGTON'S LEADING THEATER

Matinee Today, 2:30, 5:00, 7:30, and 9:15.

The FOUR COHANS

And Their Big Company, in GEO. M. COHAN'S CYCLOPIC OUTBURST OF MIRTH AND MUSIC.

"THE GOVERNOR'S SON."

SEATS TODAY.

FLORODORA

The Great New York Company.

EXTRA, SUNDAY Afternoon at 4:15. Evening at 8:15.

INNES AND HIS BAND.

SEATS TODAY.

NATIONAL

The only theater in Washington offering exclusively American and foreign stars of the first rank

KLAW & ERLANGER

OPERA COMPANY, PRESENTING

JEROME SYKES

The BILLIONAIRE

Next Week—Seats Now Selling.

LOUIS MANN

In the Amusing Comedy.

HOCH, THE CONSUL.

LAFAYETTE OPERA HOUSE

THIS WEEK, Around the World.

Grand European Ballet. Extraordinary Strong Cast. NEXT WEEK—Weber & Fields' "FIDDLE-DEE-DEE."

CHASE'S Exclusively Polite Vaudeville

DAILY MAT., 2:30. EVE'S, 7:30 and 9:00.

M LLE CAPELL.

WORLD'S INCOMPARABLE EQUESTRIENNE. MILES-STAVORDALE. ENGLISH PONY BALLET. QUINETTE. COLE & JOHNSON, & CO. RUSSELL BROS., EDITH HELENA, ETC. ELECTION NIGHT, Nov. 4. Returns—Read from Stage. Secure seats now.

ACADEMY. The Comical

Matinees: Tues., Thurs. and Sat. Best Seats 25c.

EVENINGS, RESERVED SEATS, 25c and 50c.

IN OLD KENTUCKY.

SEE THE THOROUGHBRED RACE HORSES. Next Week—The Lilliputians.

KERNAN'S, Matinee Daily 25c

ALL THIS WEEK.

THE BOWERY BURLESQUERS

Presenting

EMPIRE

SMOKING PERMITTED. THIS WEEK, METROPOLITAN BURLESQUERS.

EXTRA—Jas. P. Carroll, the Irish Wrestler. $25 to any man he fails to throw in 15 minutes.

THE STAR COURSE.

Ten Great Events,

Given in the FIRST CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH, By the Young Men's Christian Association

Nov. 24—Dorling's SWEDISH LADIES' QUINSET "The finest vocal quartet in Europe." First American Tour.

Dec. 5—MAYRO "The Incomparable" Musician, Magician, and Artist.

Dec. 13—JACOB A. RISS "The Battle with the Slugs."

Jan. 5—THE ERNEST GAMBLE RECITAL COMPANY.

Jan. 16—LELAND T. POWERS "The Prince of Impersonators" in "Monsieur Beaucaire."

Jan. 30—THE ALMONDBURY HAND BELL RINGERS.

Champions of England. Recital.

Feb. 9—ROGERS AND GRILEY. Recital.

Feb. 23—THE BOSTON LADIES' SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA.

March 9—F. HOPKINSON SMITH. Author's Reading.

March 24—THE REDPATH GRAND CONCERT COMPANY.

COURSE TICKETS, ONE DOLLAR.

Reserved seats, to holders of course tickets, 50c and 25c for each event. (May be reserved for the course.) Single nights, 75c and 50c.

Course tickets now on sale at V. M. C. A., 9 Smith's Agency, in Sanders & Stayman's, 1327 F Street. Ask for descriptive portfolio.

Chris Xander's "MELLISTON,"

$9 doz.; 75c bottle; 50c full pint. The Wild